

QUALIFYING CHARACTER

A Master's Men Leadership Evaluation

This evaluation was created by Gene Getz's from the book Measure of a Man

We believe that those who serve as a leader with Master's Men (whether that is a full-time "paid staff" or in a volunteer position as a "Team Leader") must have an outstanding reputation. The desire to be an overseer is a noble one, but one must be mature in order to oversee. Paul outlines qualities of a Christian leader in I Timothy 3:2-7 and Titus 1:6-9. Paul is not saying that leaders must be perfect, but rather how we deal with our weaknesses as we lead ...we must remain credible! The mature Christian man can handle correction and takes the necessary steps to change. If those in leadership with Master's Men are not credible (mature) then the ministry and the body of Christ suffers!

To begin the process of becoming a leader as a part of Master's Men the following evaluation must be completed by at least four of the following individuals. These individuals must fall into one of the following categories: 1) your wife (if married) 2) your pastor 3) a team member (a man who is a part of your small group who knows you relatively well) 4) an very close friend and 5) past or present employer. After fully completing this evaluation please return it by mail or through email. Thank you!
